

PATHWAYS TO BUTTERFLY CONSERVATION IN NORTH WEST ENGLAND

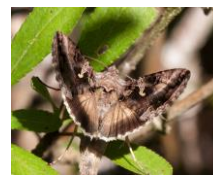

CONFERENCE AT LANCASTER UNIVERSITY

SATURDAY 23rd MARCH 2019 9am-5pm

Organised jointly by Lancaster University and Butterfly Conservation

Free Attendance, Unmissable with Exciting Studies

- 'Fifty Years of Butterfly Conservation' Dr Jim Asher
- Data Collection and Data Use, Dr Caroline Bulman
- Data and Habitat Change - A Fritillary Case Study, Dr David Wainwright
- Cumbria Bio-diversity Data Centre (to be confirmed shortly)
- Presentation of Lancaster University Students' Research Findings
Alex Blomfield - Pearl-bordered Fritillary, Lucy Gunson - Scotch Argus, Adam McVeigh - Mountain Ringlet, Jamal Kabir - Violets and Fritillary Distribution, Justine Patton - Moths and Woodlands, Abi Percival - Woodland
Ride Management and Rosie Bailey -
Northern Brown Argus
- Moth Recording, Steve Benner
- Nature Reserves and Conservation Grazing, Bill Grayson
- Conservation & opportunities with the National Trust, Craig McCoy
- Volunteer Conservation and Myers Allotment, Chris Winnick
- Duke of Burgundy Conservation in South Lakeland, Martin Wain

BOOK TO SECURE A PLACE AT:

chriswinnick@tiscali.co.uk

tel. 01539 728254

